FASHION EDITOR OF BAUBLEBAR, JACKIE ABRAMO

Meet the Fashion Editor of BaubleBar.com, Jackie Abramo

It is well known that a simple black dress will never be dull with a piece of fashion jewelry, and BaubleBar makes finding your favorite statement piece memorable.

Celebrity “Guest Bartenders” like Coco Rocha and Ashley Madekwe create wild concoctions of jewelry collections, while Baublebar stuns the fashion world with its overwhelming collection of exotic, bold, and delicate pieces. But the real gem is fashion editor, Jackie Abramo.

Whether she’s shooting editorials, creating content for brand collaborations, or turning heads with her excellent style, Jackie aids in the creation of BaubleBar’s site-wide tone and voice as the final say in fashion jewelry.

What is my favorite kind of jewelry?

Ooh, that’s a toughie! I love it all so much. Fashion jewelry really embodies the over-the-top parts of my personality, but long story short, I’m pretty much always wearing a combination of both fashion and fine. If there were a style of jewelry that I would call my favorite—it would have to be rings.

My favorite party companions are my girlfriends from back home/college. Or my two cats. We can throw a mean dance party.

When I need to get away, I book a flight straight to Kauai. It’s my hometown and easily the most magical place in the world.

My favorite sweet indulgence is a Belgian waffle with Nutella from the Wafels & Dinges truck when it’s parked in my neighborhood.

My last splurge was a pair of Céline sunglasses.

To give back, I donate to the animal shelter my cats came from or Housing Works in the West Village.

When it comes to my beauty routine, I can’t live without good old-fashioned Chapstick! And Philosophy ‘Hope in a Jar.’ Especially after this brutal New York winter.

Currently, I’m most passionate about ballet classes, and putting temporary color in my hair.

My top three designers right now are...Oh, that’s a toughie, too! I’m an accessories addict so it would have to be Charlotte Olympia, Karen Walker and Loeffler Randall.

When toasting to the good life, it’s always with a French 75. Or any kind of wine, really.

Taking time to spoil myself means a bubble bath or a nice dinner out with my boyfriend.
