

THE SPOILED LIFE

HOME

LIFESTYLED

THE LIFERS

SHOP

PASSION MAKES PERFECT WITH JEWELRY DESIGNER, KATE MISS

Author: Shawwna Woolridge - Posted in The Lifers

Jill of all trades, Kate Miss shapes her jewelry passion into expanding collections.

If you don't see what you want – make it! Kate Miss has thrived as a photographer, graphic designer and jewelry artisan because of this philosophy. And when you're as ambitious and talented as Kate Miss, why settle?

What began as unique, handcrafted jewelry to satisfy her zeal for creativity and expression, quickly grew into collections that flew off the shelves season after season. Kate Miss doesn't roll with the tides, she creates them. From etched moons cast in bronze to swaying pendants of crafted concrete suspended from leather cords, her jewelry creations are both statements pieces and elegance that seamlessly transition from day to night wear.

From Flickr to Etsy to her own online shop, Kate Miss is an artist that has spoiled us. And we were thrilled by the opportunity to learn what spoils her!

My favorite party companions are anyone who will go to karaoke with me and sing at least one song. Preferably many.

When I need to get away, I escape to Joshua Tree to be filled with desert magic.

My favorite sweet indulgence is... where do I start? Lately I dream about the Nutella and sea salt donut at Donut Friend.

My last splurge was a new camera!

To give back, I donate to public radio and try to be the absolute best friend I can be when people are in crisis. It sounds so simple and easy but most people have no idea how to handle it and I learned in a time of my own crisis.

When it comes to my beauty routine, I can't live without: Most of it changes often but I've been using MAC Select Moisture cover concealer for 10 years.

Currently, I'm most passionate about making music with my brother and learning how to sew. You have to have hobbies you don't make a dime off of when your whole career is based off of the hobbies you turned into an income.

My top three designers right now are: I don't spend much on clothing these days running my own business on a tight budget, but I love Dusen Dusen, Ilana Kohn, and Ace & Jig a lot.

When toasting to the good life, it's always: about who and what I'm toasting, not drinking. But once I have that down it's anything with Hendrick's Gin.

Taking time to spoil myself means: eating that aforementioned donut or watching way too many episodes of Scandal.

Images via Karla Ticas